

Development of the European Framework for Electromobility

Green eMotion Regional Conference February 17, Stockholm, Sweden

24 Mio € funded by:

Paving the way to an interoperable electromobility system in Europe

Will I be able to charge my eCar anywhere in Europe?

takes care that you will be e-mobile throughout Europe

© Siemens AG

- 09.00 Tea & Coffee
- 09.30 Welcome Address by Gustaf Landahl, Head of Department, Environment and Health Administration, City of Stockholm
- 09.45 Green eMotion overview by Norbert Vierheilig, Siemens AG

Hands on emobility in Stockholm

- 10.10 HEV bus transfer incl. on board presentation of ZEEUS PHEV bus project by Jonas Ericson, Stockholm Public Transport
- 10.40 Hands on the the charging unit for a Plug in hybrid city bus
- 11.00 Visit to the Construction Consolidation Centre guided by Carina Hammarlund, Wiklunds Åkeri AB
- 11.30 The City of Stockholm EV strategy and progress and the Swedish experience by Eva Sunnerstedt, City of Stockholm
- 12.00 Electric bus transfer incl. presentation of electric bus initiative by Humlegården Real Estate Company
- 12.30 Lunch

12.30 Lunch

Easy access to charge points

13.30 GeM Marketplace and standardisation by Volker Fricke, IBM Deutschland GmbH

14.00 Integration - Our experience in Green eMotion by Gerd Schauer, Verbund

14.15 Q & A

14.30 Tea & Coffee Break

Setting up the infrastructure and Real Worls Experience

15.00 Replication experience in Green eMotion by Giovanni Coppola, Enel (via Skype)

15.15 The Norwegian experience by Christina Bu, secretary general, Norsk Elbilforening

15.30 EV impact on the power system Marko Aunedi, Imperial College London

15.45 Data collection and evaluation - lessons learnt by Cristina Corchero, Institut de Recerca de l'Energia de Catalunya (IREC)

16.00 The Danish experience by Lars Overgaard, Danish Technological Institute

16.15 Q & A

16.30 Finish